

Hand claps
Soprano

Learn Your Lessons Well

words and music Harriet Tadikonda

$\text{♩} = 60$  A

I pray that you stay just as you are. Beau-ti-ful, cou rag - eous and pure. And I pray that God keeps you just 19

14

as you are. Shin - ing your light for ev - er more.

25 B

When your heart is bro-ken, may the light en-ter the wound. So that you might learn compass ion, Ne-ver break an-oth-ers too. I pray you learn hu - mil-i - ty, To give more than you take. That you learn to rise with dig-ni-ty When the storm clouds blow you a-

30

35

V.S.

Hand claps, Soprano

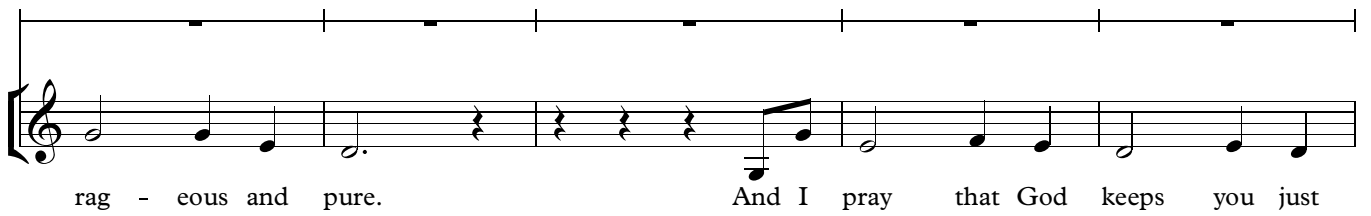

40

C

way. I pray that you stay just as you are. Beau-ti-ful, cou

47 rag - eous and pure. And I pray that God keeps you just as you are. Shin - ing your light for ev - er more.

52

58

D

When you see a poor man, I hope you look in - to his eyes. That you may learn real gra - ti - tude, For the bless - ings in your life. I pray you learn to search for more, than wealth or world - ly gain. For hid - den in the sim-ple things You find that plea - sure con - quers - pain.

62

66

E

71

75 F

pray that you stay just as you are. Beau - ti ful, cou - rag - eous and pure.

82

And I pray that God keeps you just as you are. Shin - ing your light for ev - er more. Learn your les - sons well. Learn your les - sons well. Learn your les - sons well. Learn your les - sons well. Learn your les - sons well. Learn your les - sons well. Learn your les - sons well. Learn your les - sons well.

89 G

95

101